FLASHY DRESSER was a bit edgy in the starting gate, settled off the pace inside, got out slightly entering the first turn, forcing BEAR'S DELITE and THE CAMDEN COMET out, tracked the pace between rivals down the backstretch, raced three wide into the far turn, angled to the two path near the three-sixteenths pole, rallied under hand urging, split rivals leaving the sixteenth pole and was up deep stretch under confident handling. MR. HANDSOME tracked the pace four wide around the first turn, advanced three wide around the far turn, finished well between rivals but was out kicked late. TRIPPI'S SECRET settled just off the pace while racing four and five wide around the first turn, bid three deep down the backstretch, took the lead in the three path leaving the quarter pole, drew clear near the three-sixteenths marker, bore out approaching the lane, straightened out in upper stretch and came again to earn the show. WILD LOUIS stalked the pace three wide around the first turn, bid between rivals midway down the backstretch, took the lead leaving the three-eighths pole, angled to the rail entering the far turn, chased TRIPPI'S SECRET inside around that bend, inherited a clear lead when that foe bore out nearing the lane but weakened in the final sixteenth. BRIMSTONE ISLAND raced three wide in mid pack through the opening half, advanced four wide around the far turn, responded in upper stretch, was out kicked in the final sixteenth and lacked room in deep stretch. HE CAN RUN went evenly while racing three wide. MANDORLA disputed the pace along the rail and tired nearing the far turn. BEAR'S DELITE was carried out entering the first turn, angled back toward the rail soon after, saved ground and lacked a rally. THE CAMDEN COMET broke awkwardly, was carried out and forced to steady off heels entering the first turn, raced four wide throughout and never threatened. C V OUTLAW disputed the pace two wide, led near the half-mile pole, continued to vie between rivals past the three-eighths pole then retreated around the far turn.
