DOWN TOWN ALLEN disputed the pace outside SILVER HEART while under a rating hold, poked a head in front just before going a half mile, dueled leaving the far turn, responded when shaken with three sixteenths remaining, moved clear into the lane then steadily widened the final sixteenth under right handed pressure. SILVER HEART broke sharply, dueled inside the winner for four and a half furlongs, gave way grudgingly and was clearly second best. LITTLE SHINEY rated close up while saving ground, angled out under pressure leaving the quarter pole, chased the top pair but failed to seriously respond. OK LISTEN UP moved up three wide around the first turn and tracked the duel, was put to a drive into the far turn, failed to keep pace and dropped back. LIL MISS JANE failed to menace.
