LOSING HAND TRIGGERS $115,186.00 JACKPOT AT HOLLYWOOD CASINO

A losing hand can mean winning big with the new Bad Beat Jackpot

Charles Town, WV, January 27, 2012—Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Race's poker room celebrated its third Bad Beat Jackpot since its inception in December of 2011. A total of $115,186.00 was shared by nine lucky poker players at 9:15pm on January 26, 2012

The nine players were engrossed in a game of ½ No Limit Hold 'em, when one of the players was dealt four of a kind – threes, a hand that in most games would make him a winner, but when another four of a kind was dealt in the same hand, this time four jacks, the Bad Beat Jackpot was triggered.

Timothy Bolland of Boonsboro, Maryland held the losing hand, and received the lion's share of the Bad Beat Jackpot, walking away with $57,591.25. When asked what he felt when he realized he'd won the Bad Beat Jackpot, Bolland said, "When it happened I think I was the first to react to it. I was just overcome with sheer joy. Tears came to my eyes, literally." Bolland plans to use some of the winnings to pay for his education.

The winner of the hand received $28,796.00 and the remaining players at the table each won $4,114.00. Since the win, the Bad Beat Jackpot amount has been reset to $40,306.80, and will continue to grow until it is won again.
