$125,450.00 BAD BEAT JACKPOT AT HOLLYWOOD CASINO

Biggest Bad Beat Jackpot yet makes for a Valentine's Day surprise

Charles Town, WV, February 16, 2012—Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Race's poker room had a Valentine's Day surprise when the Bad Beat Jackpot was triggered at a Texas Hold 'em table. A total of $125,450.00 was shared by nine lucky poker players at 10:30pm on February 14, 2012, making it the largest Bad Beat Jackpot to date.

The nine players were engrossed in a game of 3-6 Limit Hold 'em, when one of the players was dealt four fives, a hand that in most games would make him a winner. But when another four of a kind was dealt in the same hand, this time four nines, the Bad Beat Jackpot was triggered.

Tyrone W. of Maryland held the losing hand, and received the largest cut of Bad Beat Jackpot, walking away with $62,722. When asked how he felt at the time of his win, Tyrone said, "I was amazed. At first I couldn't believe it happened. I was very, very happy, and surprised because I know that it happens occasionally to people, and I've been in that casino when it happened to other people. It made me feel like a master winner."

The winner of the hand received $31,361.00 and the remaining seven players at the table each won $4,481.00. Since the win, the Bad Beat Jackpot amount has been reset to $45,503.00, and will continue to grow until it is won again.

The 30-table poker room is located adjacent to the racing side of the property at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races. It features different levels of Limit and No-
